

Payer contracting

Does negotiating your payer contracts feel entirely too complicated? Quite simply, it is. From ever-changing reimbursement parameters to increasingly restrictive and complicated processes, healthcare reimbursement has become a frustrating and time-consuming system fraught with sweeping changes. It's time to overcome those complexities. Count on the proven expertise of Pinnacle III to leverage, negotiate, and create reimbursement scenarios that contribute to your business success.

We excel at optimizing your reimbursement

Our team of experts has significant experience negotiating and renegotiating third-party payer contracts across every major specialty. We can assist you by structuring your facility's contracts to maximize reimbursement based on the unique needs of your organization.

Our effective navigation of substantial changes in the healthcare system allows you to focus on what you do best – treat patients – while we work behind the scenes to create the reimbursement terms you need to create and sustain a viable entity.

Whether you are a hospital, physician/hospital joint venture or physician-owned surgery center, our veteran experts and candid approach deliver measurable success in negotiating payor contracts nationwide. If you are seeking new contracts with payers, or desire improved reimbursement on existing contracts, Pinnacle III can help secure the terms and rates that position your facility for maximum success.

Value:

- III Improve reimbursement
- III Minimize administrative hassle
- III Decrease turnaround time
- III Increase shareholder distributions

Services include:

- III Contract analysis
- III Rate benchmarking
- III Key payor and market analysis
- III Rate negotiations and renegotiations
- III Decoding and reviewing contract language
- III Managing relationships and key information
- III Ensuring proper payment to contract terms
- III Contract implementation and monitoring
- III Payment compliance review

What to Expect:

With Pinnacle III, you can select from a variety of payor contracting services on both a bundled and unbundled basis – choosing the right approach for your identified needs. We individualize our flexible, innovative solutions to optimize every client's revenue-earning potential.

Partner with Pinnacle III for your contracting needs and achieve the power of prosperity.